

Appendix I

Other books which may have belonged to Geste

Listed below are printed books in Salisbury Cathedral Library, or books listed in the 1880 Catalogue but no longer extant, which may just possibly have belonged to Geste though now lacking (perhaps as a result of rebinding) sufficient copy-specific evidence to establish his ownership beyond doubt. Such evidence as remains is included with each item following the current shelf mark. The presence in a book of a post-Geste provenance does not necessarily exclude his earlier ownership since there is some evidence that books were borrowed from the Cathedral Library, later passed to others as gifts, only much later to find their way back to the Library, sometimes even as 'donations'. Such 'alienations' were made easier in the absence (in most cases) of library labels or other other marks of identification, and in any case Geste's ownership of a book (except in the relatively few instances where his inscription occurs) was not that easy to establish, especially to subsequent generations of readers not familiar with his handwriting in annotated copies or other 'fingerprints' in his books.

- *A1 Aepinus, Joannes. [Bible Commentary. Psalm 15.] In Psalmum XV. Davidis commentarius, in quo de iustificatione, de vita Christiani hominis, de votis et iuramentis, de consuetudine impiorum uitandi ... Alijo[rum] nonnulli loci diligenter per Scriptum explicantur. [Title from OCLC].

B.5.38(a)

An octavo containing two items (1561 / 62) re-bound in calf (1937), with no early fore-edge titles or press mark visible. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. No evidence, positive or negative, for or against Geste's ownership, beyond the fact that Geste had a substantial collection of books by this author printed by Froschover, and any early book titles or press mark on parchment covers would probably have been lost in rebinding.

Bound with:

An octavo containing one item (1518) in a later rebinding, with trimmed edges obscuring any traces of earlier fore-edges or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Trace of damaged ownership inscription at top edge of tp. Some faded writing at foot of tp. Some early marginal notes ('nota') on the seven mortal sins (A7v–B1r). No MS annotations by Geste and no positive evidence of his ownership extant. Just possibly his copy, acquired second-hand.

- *C1 Calfhill, James. An aunswere to the Treatise of the Crosse: wherein ye shal see by the plaine and vndoubted word of God, the vanities of men disproved by the true and godly Fathers of the church, the dreams and dotages of other controlled: and by lawfull counsels, conspiracies overthrowen. O.1.17

A quarto containing one item (1565) in parchment covers, with a very faded early spine title (not characteristic of Geste) but no press mark visible. Strip from an English, s.xv Missale, with initial letters decorated in blue and red, folded underneath flyleaf to form a narrow stub opposite tp. Two flyleaves of MS in a clear secretarial hand at beginning, and one leaf at end in the same hand, and a second in a different hand, with pen trials, both hands of s.xvi [PDN 248]. No MS annotations in the text. Just possibly Geste's copy, but no real positive (or negative) evidence to determine the issue. It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

A quarto containing two items (1537, 1543), re-bound in parchment over boards, with a possible trace of an early fore-edge title, but no press mark visible. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Possibly Geste's copy on evidence of possible fore-edge title.

A folio containing one item (1534), in a later rebinding with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of earlier fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Few contemporary MS notes, not of Geste's authorship. Just possibly Geste's copy, but no positive (and some negative) evidence, unless this was a second-hand copy and the MS notes are those of a previous owner.

- *C7 Clichtoveus, Jodocus. De sacramento Eucharistiae, contra Oecolampadium, opusculu[m] ... duos libros complectens.

A quarto containing one item (1526) in contemporary calf, blind-tooled with heads-in-medallions panels now worn and damaged, but apparently Oldham HM. 11/12 (Weale R.218) with what appears to be the 'M D' initials (attributed to Martin Dature, London) just visible on one of the panels. Now remounted in a modern rebinding. Geste had two books with this panel binding (B72, with a 1536 imprint, and L57, printed in 1539). Early fore-edge title and possible trace of press mark. New endpapers. No pastedowns extant. At top of tp: '[?]Ego su[m]Jo. Calverdi ex dono mag[ist]ri J Fobson [=?Hobson] vec[?]fensil'. For another book with a Calverde inscription, see P33 (a 1542 Pighius). Venn records no example of a 'Fobson', and in the absence of a '.' between 'J' and 'F' it seems more probable that an (albeit eccentric) 'H' is intended, i.e. 'Hobson'. Venn records a number of Hobsons who would qualify as 'Magister' (see Appendix X). MS annotations probably in the hands of earlier owners. The Calverde provenance, panel binding and fore-edge inscription strengthen the case for the Geste ownership of this book.

- *C8 Cochlaeus [Dobneck], Joannes. In quatuor Andraeae Osiandri coniecturas de fine mundi. [col. Ingolstadii: excudebat Alexander Vuesenhorn], 1545 (Ian.). 4°. Unpaginated. A–I⁴ (I4 blank). VD16 C 4332, USTC 666411, Adams C2276, CLC D686 (only copy), Sal. Cat. 100.

By association with Appendix.I, *C11 ZCI.2.15(a) No MS annotations. Geste ownership very uncertain.

- *C9 Cochlaeus [Dobneck], Joannes. Philippicae quatuor ... in Apologiam Philippi Melanchthonis ad Carolum V. Imperatorem Romanorum, &c. Lipsiae: [col. excudebat Nicolaus Faber], 1534 (col. June). 4°. Unpaginated. Coll. as Adams C2280. VD16 C 4355, USTC 679457, CLC D688, Sal. Cat. 200, BiCI 3.

A quarto containing one item (1534), re-bound in parchment over boards, with red-stained edges obscuring any earlier fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS notes throughout, but not in Geste's hand. Just possibly Geste's copy, but only on the grounds that many titles by this author occur in his library and that his copy was possibly acquired second-hand with annotations of former owner (unknown). It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *C10 Cochlaeus [Dobneck], Joannes. Septiceps Lutherus, ubiq[ue] sibi, suis scriptis, co[n]trari[us], in Visitatione[m] Saxonica[m], p[er] D. D. Ioa[n]. Cocl[ae]u[m] [a]editus. L.5.23

A quarto containing one item (1529) re-bound in parchment over boards, with red-stained edges obscuring any earlier fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS marginalia on fos. 2r, 25v and 38v do not appear to be in Geste's hand. No positive (and some negative) evidence for Geste's ownership. Possibly acquired second-hand with annotations of former owner (unknown). It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *C11 Cochlaeus [Dobneck], Joannes. Vita Theoderici Regis quondam Ostrogothorum & Italiae. [Ingolstadt]: ex officina Alexandri Vuesenhorn, 1544. 4°. Unpaginated. Aa–Pp⁴. VD16 C 4410, USTC 701503, Adams C2293, CLC D695 (only copy), Sal. Cat. 100, BiCI 1.

ZCI.2.15(a)

A quarto containing two items (1544, 1545) in a modern rebinding. No early book titles or press mark extant (perhaps originally on spine of parchment covers and lost in rebinding). At front, a leaf from a s.xiv (perhaps French) alphabetical dictionary in MS, in 2 cols with initial letters decorated in red and blue, and at the back another leaf from the same MS as pastedowns or flyleaves (both now unstuck) with new endpapers [PDN 297]. No MS annotations. Geste's ownership very uncertain. No negative evidence. The pastedowns or flyleaves (pointing to a Cambridge origin for the original binding) provide some positive evidence for Geste's ownership.

Bound with:

A quarto containing one item (1500) in modern white parchment (1919), with no trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS annotations (leaves a3–b5) in an early XVIth cent. hand (not Geste's). A note on A2r (upside down in relation to the text) in English in another XVIth cent. hand recording a date. No positive (and some negative) evidence of Geste's ownership, but just possibly acquired second-hand with evidence of early fore-edge title and press mark destroyed in later rebinding. It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *C13 Curio, Coelius Secundus. Logices elementorum libri quatuor: quibus ad Aristotelis Organum aditus aperitur.

An octavo containing two items (1551, 1567) re-bound in marbled paper over boards, with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. X.1.20

An octavo containing one item (1547) in parchment covers with book title (not characteristic of Geste's) across spine and later book label with gold lettering and edges on black. No early press mark visible (perhaps hidden under later book label). Early ownership inscription on tp: 'Sum Michaelis ?Deismanni Lonberge[n]sis Nassoanis[?] Anno [..]61'. Flyleaf before tp with notes and pen-trials on recto and a page of MS in same hand as ownership inscription opposite tp. Narrow stub of blank paper folded over between quires a and A [PDN 296].  D.3.13
 An octavo containing one item (1548) in contemporary calf over pasteboard, blind-tooled with an Oxford roll – Oldham MW.a(1) 857 (= Gibson roll XII) – signed 'GK' 61–62. Early fore-edge titles: 'Dion. Carthu[?]s | in | lib.Sapientales' (across top of fore-edge) and 'Dionysius' (down fore-edge) apparently in the same hand, though with a significant difference in the letter 'D'. No early press mark visible. Leaves from a fragment of an unidentified, English, s.xiv^v MS of biblical history as pastedown at front (covered by library label) and back (Ker, Fragments, no. 622). Flyleaf from a wide-margined printed book at front, annotated in a neat early-XVIth.cent. hand, on which has also been written 'WJ. 18.Sept. | 1629 | 7' and the book title 'Carthusianus in Sapientales', and on the verso, 'WJ. | 6', all in the same XVIIth.cent. hand. Early XVIth.cent. note below book title on tp, possibly in the same hand as the annotations on the flyleaf:
 [?]'pr[?]et]ium P[?]m[us] librij. xvj^d[erased] ij^s.iiij^d [PDN 70]. Some MS annotations in the form of underlinings and marginal lines, e.g. on fo. 2v and, in another hand, on 214v, neither of them apparently Geste's. Just possibly Geste's copy, on the grounds of the fore-edge title, presumably acquired second-hand, though the lack of an early press mark might weaken the case for his ownership. It is not clear whether the 'WJ ... 1629' is an indication of former ownership, a note by a reader, or to its possible loan or removal from the library and subsequent return.
- *D5 Dionysius, Carthusianus. [Works, Vol. 1. Bible Commentary. Gospels.] In quatuor Euangelistas enarrationes.

A folio containing one item (1533) re-bound in calf over boards with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS annotations in the form of notes, underlinings and marginal numbers in a XVIth cent. hand, apparently not Geste's. Just possibly a copy acquired by Geste second-hand, but some negative evidence (e.g. the MS annotations) and no extant positive evidence. It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

A quarto containing two items (1481) in a later rebinding, with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge title or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Some MS notes not in Geste's hand. Early book-price on penultimate leaf, and later inscriptions at the end of the book. The other volume of the same edition at Salisbury (D33 L.4.25) carries some possible evidence of Geste's ownership, e.g. early fore-edge title and press mark.

A folio containing one item (1551) in a later rebinding, with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge title or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Text begins at *2. Margins cut down in rebinding, and some annotations cropped. Few MS annotations in a XVIth century hand, in the form of underlinings and notes of uncertain authorship, but that on fo. 210v is more like Geste's hand. Geste's ownership very uncertain. It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified. The other copy of this ed. at Salisbury [R.4.13], also in a later rebinding, with speckled edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge title or press mark, carries a note of the price on the tp, but no MS annotations in the text, and there is no positive evidence of Geste's ownership.

Y.3.19(a)

A folio containing three items (1526–1527) in contemporary calf over pasteboard, blind-tooled with heraldic roll (Oldham HE.g(4) 761) surrounding a rectangular frame within which there is a lattice of four full- and eight half-perforations of Oldham ornament C(4), attributed by Bailey to the Cambridge binder, Spierinck (p. 12). With original clasps and hinges intact. Untrimmed fore-edge – no trace of early book titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Early book price (vi^s ?8^d) at right end of top edge of tp and initials ‘D: J [... smudged]’. MS notes on pp. 5 and 11, evidently in the hand of a former owner, including pen trials at the top of the latter including ‘Thomas’, ‘Williu[m]’ and ‘Williu[m]’, and other ownership inscriptions in Y.3.19(c) on pp. 24 (‘This is the book [?of] Hue [?]Joyyees’, 126 (‘This is the boo[k]..’[rest cut off] in same hand), 232 (‘Iste liber p[er]tinet ad Octogranj[] Newton[um]’) and 234 (‘Williu[m] Blithman[?]’). No MS annotations in Geste’s hand. While just possibly Geste’s copy (if acquired second-hand – with MS annotations, ownership inscriptions and pen trials of previous owners), the only evidence in favour of his ownership is the Cambridge binding – the same roll (though with different ornaments) occurs in Geste’s set of Dionysius, Carthusianus, D10–19 E.3.16–21. It is not known when the book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

F.2.30(a)

A quarto containing two items (1527, 1550) in a later rebinding, with trimmed fore-edges, without evidence of any early book titles or press mark on either the fore-edge or spine. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. No surviving evidence of Geste's ownership, but no negative evidence either, and his ownership of this, and the associated item would be entirely consistent with his ownership of a number of works in the field of semitic studies, such as A22, A69, C29, C39, C81, E18, E54, M83–85, and R16–17, all in shelf F.2.3–F.2.29. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

E.3.11

A folio containing one item (1534–1535) in a later rebinding, with red-stained edges obscuring any earlier evidence of fore-edge or spine titles, or early press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS annotation in the form of underlining in the text on fo. 58 of uncertain authorship, but no notes or other annotations. No positive evidence of Geste ownership, but no negative evidence and like *M4, above, his ownership of this Hebrew Bible would be entirely consistent with his ownership of a number of works in the field of Semitic studies. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *M6 Musculus, Wolfgang. [Bible Commentary. Isaiah.] In Esaiam prophetam commentarij locupletissima, ac recens editi.

A folio containing one item (1557) re-bound in marbled paper over boards with red-stained edges. Just possibly a trace of an early fore-edge title, but no press mark visible. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Just possibly Geste's copy, but no decisive evidence. He owned six other biblical commentaries of Musculus, and this one contains no evidence of other early ownership. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury.

- *O1 Ochino, Bernardino. Dialogi XXX. in duos libros diuisi, quorum primus est de Messia, continetq[ue] dialogos xvij. Secundus est, cum [alijs – pt 2 tp] de rebus varijs, tum potissimum de trinitate. Tr. S. Châteillon.

Two octavo volumes containing one item (1563), both in later rebindings, with brown-stained edges obscuring any evidence of early book titles or press marks, though there is a possible trace of an early fore-edge title on H.2.3, but no press mark. No pastedowns extant. Marginal lines on

p. 12 of H.2.3 might just possibly be by Geste, but other MS markings, e.g. on pp. 104, 186–88, 212–13, and those in pt 2 at pp. 198 and 234 do not appear to be in his hand. Geste's ownership of these volumes is far from certain. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *O₂ Oecolampadius, Joannes & Zwingli, Huldrich. Epistolarum libri quatuor ... Ad haec scriptorum Io. Oecolampadii & Huldrichi Zuingli purgatio, per Theodorum Bibliandrum. Basileae: [col. per Thomam Platterum et Balthasarem Lasium], 1536 (col. mense Martio). Fol. Ff. 212 + index. Coll. as Adams O107 (but lacks u1). VD16 O 319, USTC 628542, CLC 055, Sal. Cat. 196, Parker's copy shelfmark F.6.12, BiCI 2.

N.4.8

A folio containing one item (1536) in a later rebinding with trimmed fore-edges, obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Much annotated in the form of marginal lines and other markings, underlinings and notes, in what appear to be a variety of hands, one of which is very small and neat, another (e.g. at fo. 129r) very rough, but none clearly of Geste's making. Just possibly Geste's copy (if acquired second-hand), but no positive (and some negative) evidence. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

- *O₃ Oecolampadius, Joannes. Quod non sit onerosa Christianis confessio, Paradoxon Ioannis Oecolampadii. Basileae: apud Andream Cratandrum, 1521 (mense Iunio). 4°. Pp. 117. a–p⁴ (p4 blank). Not in Adams. VD16 O391, USTC 689545, CLC O60 (only copy), Sal. Cat. 196.

C.1.1(a)

A quarto containing three items (1522) re-bound in parchment over boards, with early fore-edge titles, apparently not Geste's, and no press mark visible. Any early spine titles or press mark would have been lost in rebinding. Ownership inscription on tp: 'Liber Georgii Rykes ex dono Roberti Watton 1590'. No pastedowns extant. Some MS annotations in the form of marginal lines, probably not by Geste. Although Geste had a number of works by Oecolampadius, there is no evidence that this was one of them, unless the inscription on the tp indicates that this was one of his books that had been removed from his collection and subsequently returned.

An octavo containing one item (1569) in a later rebinding, with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. MS annotations not in Geste's hand. While potential evidence may have been lost in rebinding, there is no positive evidence of his ownership. It is not known when this book came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

An octavo containing one item (1567) in parchment covers with a book title across spine and a press mark ('13') in a dark ink, neither of a type usually found in Geste's books. No pastedowns extant. Inscription at foot of tp: 'Ornatissimo viro, Eurardo Bla[?]nckardo, amico optatissimo, in Germaniam discedens d.d. Joannes Boulenius'. No other annotations or marginal lines. Geste's ownership very uncertain because of the ownership inscription, unless this was a book acquired second-hand.

An octavo containing one item (1534) re-bound in parchment over boards with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Ownership inscription within tp border: 'Liber henrici [?]habes' and in another hand 'pryce xx0j' and other pen trials, and at foot of tp 'Liber Th. [?]Laywell or Lugwell' [erased]. Some MS annotations, presumably those of former owners. No Geste MS annotations. Geste ownership just possible, if book was acquired from former owners.

- *P₄ Petrus, Damianus. [Lacks tp.] 'Liber qui dicitur gratissimus. Sermones ii. de excellentia Ioannis Euangelistae'. [n.pl.: n.pr., n.d.]. 8°. Edition not identified. Not in Adams or CLC. Sal. Cat. 109.

ZC2.8.9

An octavo (without tp, date and imprint) now missing, but seen earlier by J. B. Oldham who identified the panel binding as an example of MISC. 8/9 by the London binder, Martin Dature. In the absence of the book and copy-specific information, it is uncertain whether this had any association with Geste.

- *P5 Pia et catholica christiani hominis institutio. [Latin tr. of A necessary doctrine and erudition for any christen man, sette furthe by the kynges maiestie (1543), known as ‘The King’s Book’ (STC 5168)].

K.2.20

A quarto containing one item (1544) now missing and reported as such by J. B. Oldham, Panels (1958), pp. 50–51, in contemporary calf over pasteboard, blind-stamped, according to Oldham, with panels MISC. 8 and 9. No other copy-specific details known. Whether this had belonged to Geste is not known.

- *P6 Pontifical [Latin Rite.] Pontificale nouiter impressum p[er]pulchrisq[ue] characteribus diligentissime annotatum. Ed. Jacobus de Lutius and Joannes Burchardus.

A folio containing one item (1510) in a later rebinding, with a possible trace of an early fore-edge title and press mark. No pastedowns extant. Some MS annotations in various early hands, e.g. at fos. 6v–7, and 98–100 on the Orders of Deacons and Subdeacons, but none of these appear to be in Geste’s hand. Geste’s ownership just possible on evidence of possible traces of fore-edge title and press mark but far from certain.

- *R1 Rastell, John, S.J. A treatise intituled, Beware of M. Jewel. [Rastell’s reply to Jewel’s, A reple vnto M. Hardinges answeare (1565)].

An octavo containing one item (1566) in parchment covers, with four support slips of alum-tawed skin threaded through the covers. Later author and title labels in gold on black, edged with gold, on the spine, possibly obscuring early spine titles. Early press mark (F77) on spine. At top of tp: ‘Da gloriam D[omi]no.[?]-str. y’, not in Geste’s hand. At back, wide strip from an English, s.xiv/xv Psalterium, with initial letters coloured in red and blue, folded over leaving a stub, stuck to inside of parchment cover, to strengthen binding structure [PDN 250]. Geste’s ownership far from certain and largely dependent on early press mark. Geste had a copy of Jewel’s A reple vnto M. Hardinges answeare (1565) at J8 T.3.3, and the continuation of A treatise at R7 O.2.45.

A quarto containing one item (1510–1511) re-bound in parchment over boards with red-stained edges, obscuring any possible trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Just possibly Geste’s copy, since the other titles by this author at Salisbury [R29–30] appear to be of his ownership, but no other positive evidence.

- *R3 Rome, Church of. [Cancellaria Apostolica.] Regulae Cancellariae Apostolicae, Innocentij octavi, Iulij secundi, ac Clementis septimi, cum commentarijs & scholijs longè quàm olim castigatiores. His accessere, regulae, ordinationes Cancellariae.

A sextodecimo containing one item (1545) in a later rebinding with trimmed flecked fore-edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge title or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Just possibly Geste's copy, lacking positive (or negative) evidence. It is not known when this copy came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

H.1.30

An octavo containing one item (1545) in a later rebinding, with speckled fore-edges, obscuring any trace of early fore-edge title or press mark. At front, part of four leaves (including three paginated 152/145, 162/167, and 146/151) from a printed book with the running titles 'S. Orichovius', 'Annales Polon.' (two of them folded over to form a strip, apparently stuck down originally, but now unstuck) as flyleaves [PDN 286]. Press mark of Seth Ward, bishop of Salisbury (1667–89), on a flyleaf: 'B:6:28'. MS note at foot of tp, probably also in Seth Ward's hand. Sheared word visible at foot of tp which is probably in the same hand, but just possibly a trace of Geste's binding instruction. Underlining of the text with a pointing hand in the margin at fo. 49v of uncertain authorship. The case for Geste's ownership of this book would rest on (a) whether the sheared note at the foot of the tp was his binding instruction, and (b) on whether Seth Ward having obtained the book from the library, and perhaps at a later date adding his own press mark, inadvertently supposed that the book had once belonged to him, the book coming to the Cathedral library with the rest of his books after his death. But on balance, Geste's ownership is unlikely.

A quarto containing one item (1570) in a later rebinding. No early fore-edge titles or press marks visible. No pastedowns extant. Some MS notes not in Geste's hand. L.5.30

A quarto containing one item (c. 1520) re-bound in marbled paper over boards, with red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Geste ownership just possible in view of his ownership of all the other works by this author at Salisbury, but no copy-specific evidence either positive (or negative) has survived rebinding. It is not known when this copy came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified. A work which relates to issues of divine grace, free will, faith and works, eucharistic sacrifice and communion in one or both kinds.

Not extant
Quoted and cited in Geste's Treatise (1548) at D5 and G5v (Dugdale ed. pp. 94 and 113). Not listed in Sal. Cat. Perhaps a copy consulted by Geste in Cambridge at the time rather than owned.

ZC2.6.20

An octavo containing one item (1549) in a modern binding [by H. Bailey, Salisbury], with new endpapers. Two leaves from an English, s.xiv Breviary in MS (with text in two cols. and initial letters decorated in blue, red and green) as flyleaves at front and back [PDN 288]. Untrimmed fore-edges. No early book titles or press mark visible, but if this book was originally bound in parchment with book titles on the spine these could have been lost in re-binding. No MS annotations. Some leaves unopened. Title page damaged at top and bottom edges. Just possibly a book of Geste's ownership on the grounds of the full MS flyleaves, consistent with contemporary Cambridge binding practice, though lacking other positive evidence. It is not known when this copy came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.

A folio containing one item (1555–1557) in a later rebinding with speckled fore-edges. No trace of any earlier fore-edge title or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. No positive (or negative) evidence for or against Geste's ownership.

Z.2.52

A folio containing one item (1534) in a modern rebinding with trimmed fore-edges obscuring any evidence of early fore-edge title or press mark. No pastedowns extant. Some MS notes (mainly in Greek as well as Latin), not certainly by Geste, e.g. fos. 106 and 137. Geste's ownership just possible, but evidence far from conclusive. There is no record of when this copy came to Salisbury (if it was not Geste's), and no other provenance has been identified.

- *T3 Thucydides. De bello Peloponnesium Atheniensium libri VIII. Laurentio Valla interprete. Ed. Conrad Heresbach.

Adams T669), [Opera – BiCI 9, Perne (in BiCI) 1941].

Y.3.19(c)

By association with Appendix I, *H2. Early ownership inscriptions – see entry for *H2. MS note on p. 187 not in Geste's hand.

- *V1 Venatorius [Gechauf], Thomas. [Bible Commentary. I Timothy.] In diui Pauli apostoli priorem ad Timotheum epistolam distributiones XX. Pref. Nuremberg, 1532 (6 Cal. April)

C.6.6

An octavo containing one item (1533) re-bound in marbled paper over boards, with trimmed red-stained edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. Geste's ownership possible, though no positive (or negative) evidence in the book itself. There is no record of when this copy came to Salisbury (if it was not Geste's), and no other provenance has been identified. It is possible that Geste owned another work by this same author – see *V₂ C.2.5 (below) – which is no longer extant.

- *V₂ Venatorius [Gechauf], Thomas. De sola fide iustificante nos in oculis Dei ... ad Ioanne[m] Hanerum epistola apologetica.

C.2.5

The copy listed in the 1880 Sal. Cat. is now missing, so it is not possible to determine whether it was Geste's copy. The work is a reply to Johan Haner, Prophetia uetus, ac noua, hoc est, uera Scripturae interpretatio (1534) of which Geste had a copy at H5 I.7.6(c).

- *V₃ Vergil, Polydore. Anglicae historiae libri vigintis septem.
Basileae: apud Mich. Insigninum, 1557. Fol. Pp. 691 + index. Coll. as Adams V451. VD16 V 713, USTC 631575, CLC V347 (only copy), Sal. Cat. 259, Parker's copy shelfmark I.6.23 (1546 ed. Adams V447) and I.6.24 (1555 ed. Adams V448), BiCI II, Shaxton (in BiCI) 137, Perne (in BiCI) 1945, cf. Bancroft, 8° ed., 69r.

A folio containing one item (1557) in a later rebinding with red-stained edges and book title 'Polydore Vergil' (though perhaps not contemporary) across fore-edge. No early press mark visible. Two leaves from an early printed book (?Canon law) as pastedown at each end (still stuck down) with 1817 library label stuck over front pastedown. Strip from an English or French, s.xii^{ex}. MS of Justinian, Codex, at each end, with initial letters coloured in red [PDN 291.1A, 3A and PDN 291.1B, 2B, 3B]. Few marginal markings on pp. 429 and 566 by an unknown annotator, probably not Geste. No other annotations. Geste's ownership possible, but insufficient positive evidence. On the other hand, there is no record of when this book came to Salisbury (if it was not Geste's), and no other provenance has been identified.

- *W₁ Whitgift, John. Archbishop of Canterbury. An answer to a certain libel intituled An Admonition to the Parliament [by J. Field and T. Wilcox, STC 4711].
Imprinted at London by Henrie Bynneman, for Humfrey Toy, 1572. 4°. Pp. 246. A⁴ a² B–Y⁴, 2A–2P⁴. ESTC S122025, USTC 507544, STC 25427, Sal. Cat. 267, BiCI 7, Perne (in BiCI) 1472–73/1527 (as W16).

O.1.5

Listed in 1880 Catalogue. Now missing. Geste's ownership uncertain, but he seems to have owned the only other Whitgift book at Salisbury [W16 T.3.8].

- *W₂ Wigand, Johann. Συνταγμα, seu corpus doctrinae ueri & omnipotentis Dei, ex uetero Testamento tantum, methodica ratione, singulari studio, fide & diligentia collectum, dispositum & concinnatum per Iohannem VVigandum & Matthaem Iudicem.

VD16 W 2874, USTC 695622, Adams W163, CLC W355, Sal. Cat. 268, Parker's copy shelfmark SP183 (1564 ed. Adams W162) – replacement for Parker's copy of the 1560 ed., BiCI I, Perne (in BiCI) 1298.

A quarto containing one item (1564) in a later rebinding, with trimmed fore-edges obscuring any trace of early fore-edge titles or press mark. No pastedowns extant. No MS annotations. No positive (or negative) evidence for Geste ownership, but all the other works of this author at Salisbury belonged to him [W18–26]. There is no record of when this copy came to Salisbury, and no other provenance has been identified.
